

THE BALTIMORE MUSEUM OF ART RIGHTS AND REPRODUCTIONS CONDITIONS OF USE

Permission to reproduce objects in the collection of The Baltimore Museum of Art is granted on a case-by-case basis and at the sole discretion of the BMA. Images cannot be reproduced, publicly displayed, or distributed without the prior written approval of the BMA.

Terms of Use:

- Only original photographic materials supplied by the BMA Rights & Reproductions Department may be used for reproduction. Use of copied materials or slides is prohibited.
- In all cases, reproduction permission is granted for one-time usage only, in the publication for which the application was originally made. This one-time use is granted in accordance with the terms and conditions specified in the application.
- Caption and credit line for the image supplied should appear with the reproduction in the form specified by the BMA.
- Reproductions may not bleed off the page, be trimmed or cropped in any way, and may not be printed on color stock unless specific, advance permission is obtained. If a detail is reproduced, it should be identified as such in the caption. No type or other image may be superimposed on the reproduction.
- The Museum reserves the right of final approval of color proofs for publication. When requested, proof(s) can be sent to the BMA Rights & Reproductions Department for approval.
- Color transparencies are loaned for a period of six months; late fees will be assessed if they are not returned on time.
- A copy of the publication in which the reproduction appears should be provided to the BMA Rights & Reproductions Department.

Fees:

Fees vary depending on the specifics of each request, including: commercial or non-profit status of the borrower, type of material requested, and the scope of distribution. New photography and rush orders may require additional fees. Prepayment of fees is requested and is accepted by check, credit card (Visa, MasterCard, American Express), or bank transfer.

Copyright:

Works of art appearing in BMA images, even if such objects are owned by the BMA, may be protected by copyright, publication rights, or related interests that are not owned by the BMA. The BMA is not granting permission to exploit any third party rights. It is the Applicant's responsibility to ascertain if any such rights exist, obtain permission from any copyright holders, and pay associated royalties or fees.

The BMA assumes no responsibility for any royalties or fees claimed by any persons asserting the right to control reproduction rights to works of art in its collections. The BMA's fees are separate from any that may be assessed by third party copyright holders.

###