

GUIDELINES FOR MUSEUM BEHAVIOR

The Baltimore Museum of Art wholeheartedly welcomes groups who wish to visit its galleries. For the best museum experience, it is important for students as well as group leaders and chaperones to know what to expect and what is expected of them. These Guidelines will help to insure a safe, enjoyable, and productive learning experience for all.

THE ROLE OF GROUP LEADERS AND CHAPERONES

- BE RESPONSIBLE FOR YOUR GROUP

You will be responsible for a group of 10-15 students. It is vital that you know who is in your group so that you can keep the group together. Please accompany your group in the galleries at all times and do not wander off to other areas.

- HELP YOUR STUDENTS LEARN

On Docent-led tours, Docents will be posing age-appropriate questions with the students' needs in mind. Please allow the students to answer the questions and refrain from answering yourself.

Though we appreciate your enthusiasm, please help to make the quality of the students' experience our shared priority.

If your tour is self-guided, you can help students explore the galleries by encouraging them to look carefully at the artworks.

- BE A MODEL FOR YOUR STUDENTS' BEHAVIOR

Please review Museum Manners (below) with your group and lead by your good example so that everyone's museum experience will be smooth and enjoyable.

MUSEUM MANNERS

- Please do not touch objects in the Museum galleries. Natural oils and moisture from hands can cause damage to artworks over time.
- For your safety and the safety of the artworks, do not touch or climb on the sculptures in the Sculpture Gardens. Please observe the signs in the garden indicating that the "please don't touch" policy applies outdoors as well as indoors.
- Stay with your group at all times. The BMA is a big place and it is easy to get lost.
- Always walk (never run) in the galleries or Sculpture Gardens. We do not want you to hurt yourself or damage the artworks.
- Please use indoor voices so that you do not distract other groups in the galleries. Speak one at a time so that everyone can be heard.
- Use pencils for writing or sketching. No crayons, pens, markers, or wet materials are permitted in the galleries.
- Please do not lean on walls or cases and do not use them as writing surfaces.
