

FREE CELL PHONE TOUR

BMA Sculpture Gardens

Director Doreen Bolger is your guide on a tour of contemporary and modern works in the BMA's lush sculpture gardens.

Dial 443-573-1822
and follow the prompts

NO COST EXCEPT YOUR MINUTES

It's easy! Decide what you hear, when, and in what order.
Stop length averages 90 seconds.

- Dial 443-573-1822 and follow the prompts.
- Enter a 2-digit stop number found below; wait a moment.
- Press # to skip at any time during the tour.
- If no stop number is entered within 5 seconds, call will end.
- Enjoy your visit and come back again!

INTRODUCTION

99 Director's Welcome

98 About the Gardens

WURTZBURGER SCULPTURE GARDEN

01 Auguste Rodin, Balzac, 1957 (cast original 1892)

02 Raymond Duchamp-Villon, The Horse, 1914

03 Commentary: Conservator Ann Boulton on preserving bronze sculpture

04 Pablo Gargallo, The Prophet (St. John the Baptist), 1933

05 Ossip Zadkine, May 1940: The Destroyed City, 1957

06 Henry Moore, Three Piece Reclining Figure No. 1, 1961-62

07 Commentary: BMA Honorary Trustee Peggy Heller on growing up with the Wurtzburger Collection

LEVI SCULPTURE GARDEN

08 Jose De Rivera, Construction 140, 1971

09 Louise Nevelson, Seventh Decade Forest, 1971-76

10 Commentary: Conservator Ann Boulton on preserving painted metal sculpture

11 Alexander Calder, 100 Yard Dash, 1969

12 Scott Burton, Rock Chair, 1986-87

13 Ellsworth Kelly, Untitled, 1986

14 Tony Smith, Spitball, 1961

15 Artist Comments: Mark Di Suvero on his sculpture Sister Lu, 1978-79

Help us preserve the art for future generations.

Please do not touch or climb on the sculpture. Oils and moisture from hands can damage the art. Thank you!

